- The amount transferred for first mortgage payments will automatically change with escrow analysis, insurance, tax or rate adjustments. You will receive advance notice of this change. This includes rounded payments.
- If your transfer due date falls on a weekend day or holiday your transfer will be posted on the next business day. This authorization must be received at least five (5) days prior to your first transfer date. If there are fewer than five (5) days until your first transfer date, automatic payments will commence the following month.
- You are responsible and liable for all transactions made under this authorization. FSBWA will not be liable for any fees your financial institution may assess if you do not have sufficient funds in your deposit account to cover a transfer.
- Transfers will continue until you terminate this authorization in writing, or, as long as there is an outstanding balance on your loan.
- You understand all entries transmitted by you and the bank, are bound by the NACHA Operating Rules; you have authorization to debit or credit the account at the receiving Financial Institution.
- You agree not to violate the laws of the U.S. by generating transactions to any account blocked by the Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC) or for the purposes of unlawful Internet Gambling.
- FSBWA will make every effort to process, transmit and settle for transactions, but is not liable for any consequential, special, punitive or indirect loss or damage if the transaction is delayed.
- You understand that if the account number and name on the transaction are inconsistent, Receiving Financial Institution may credit/debit the account based solely on the account number.
- Either party may terminate this agreement with fifteen days written notice; such termination does not affect the customer's obligations under this agreement.
- Change or cancellation requests must be received at least five (5) business days prior to the transfer date.
